

Knox Noble Cannon Train Reenactment Schedule for Columbia County

Jan. 4th, 10 AM Vanderpoel House. Town of Kinderhook commemorates the Knox Train of Artillery.

Jan. 4th, 4 PM to 5:30 PM Vanderpoel House. The Columbia County Historical Society and Columbia County Historians will amaze and amuse you with a talk and trivia about Knox and the perils of dragging cannons and munitions by oxen and horse across the freezing and treacherous landscape of New York and Massachusetts.

Sometime between Jan. 4th-9th Gregg Berninger runs the Ghent portion of the Knox Trail. Greg welcomes anyone who is able to make the run with him.

Sunday, January 4, 2026 at 10 AM

Knox Trail Reenactment and Celebration

16 Broad Street Kinderhook NY 12106

January 8 – Gary Leveille, Author and Reporter: Gary will present a talk at Kinderhook Library about General Knox’s historic feat from 5:30 pm - 6:30 pm.

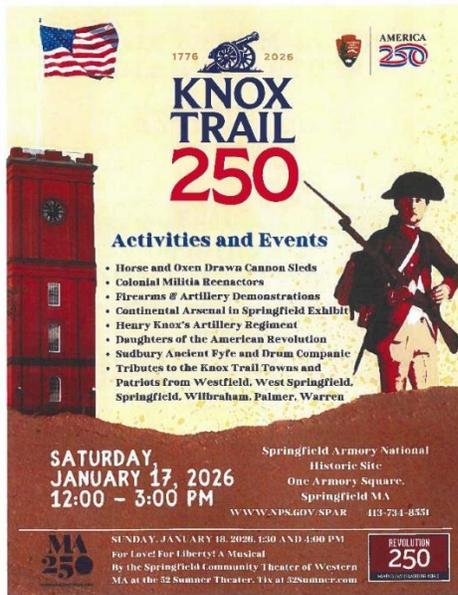

January 9 – James Vanderpoel House of History, 16 Broad Street, Kinderhook Village at 10:00 a.m. This special tribute to American history will feature reenactors from Fort Ticonderoga, live oxen, special guest speakers, and refreshments – all under a heated tent.

Jan. 10th, 11:30 AM at the Hillsdale Firehouse. This commemoration at the Hillsdale Firehouse, 9387 State Route 22 features free food and drinks, and a special Knox Ball Crunch ice cream donated by Stewart’s Shops. The celebration will include costumed reenactors from Fort Ticonderoga and a team of live oxen, replicating the historic effort to transport 60 tons of cannon and munitions from Fort Ticonderoga to Boston in the dead of winter.

See Columbia County Website for additional details.

<https://columbiacountytourism.org/event/the-knox-train-of-artillery/>

Continuing through Massachusetts at Springfield January 17, 2026, see below. Additional information will be forthcoming as the train makes it's way to Cambridge.

Knox Noble Train of Artillery route (Photo from Hudson Crossing Park Website, <https://www.hudsoncrossingpark.org/virtual-heritage-wayside-knoxs-noble-train>)

